Mr. Jim Wilburn
Church of Christ Bible Chair
Midwestern University
Box 262
Wichita Falls, Texas

Dear Jim:

Please excuse my tardy reply to your letter of May 10. I am happy to consider the possibility of working with you at the Bible Chair for a week. You have certainly brought some excellent men to the campus in Virgil Trout and Bill Banowsky. I hope that I can do what is expected of me within the tradition already set by these men.

I can work this into my schedule for Monday, September 25, through Friday, September 29, 1967. I will be living in Abilene by that time, working with Herald of Truth if present plans are culminated. I will expect to hear from you relative to a confirmation of these dates at your convenience. I have tentatively placed them on my schedule.

We send our best wishes for the unusual work that you are doing in Wichita Falls and pray for you God's continued blessing.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
